

The County Office of Boards and Commissions

Presents

Basic Parliamentary Procedures

By Trainer Tom Lodico

April 2, 2013

Please complete the following questionnaire and provide additional feedback to help us continue to make the curriculum both productive and meaningful to you. Mahalo!

Name: _____ Overall Rating 4.74 (optional)

Please rate the following items:

	Excellent	Above Average	Average	Below Average	Poor
Instructor: Tom Lodico
How would you rate this workshop?	5	4	3	2	1
How would you rate the trainer?	5	4	3	2	1
Course Objectives:
Do you have a better understanding of basic parliamentary procedures?	5	4	3	2	1

Please provide candid feedback to the following questions. Your responses will remain confidential:

I authorize the Office of Boards and Commissions to use my comments anonymously for public communication and for promotional purposes. ☐ Yes ☐ No

- What did you like most about this training session?
Member participation; Explanation of correct & proper procedures; Good role play, good basic description of processes, especially helpful if all new members of commissions is required to take; Holding mock meeting with the audience participation; Clever and precise; Interactive session; Very interesting and informative; The practice of running a meeting with the parliamentary procedures; Simplicity; Interactive exercise portion was great;
- Are there parts of this session you would change?
No; Might be fun to see some actual filmed examples to critique, would love to get a Robert's Rules reference book; No, it was very helpful; It takes time to learn; No; No; No; No;
- Would you recommend this course to others?
Yes; To all Commissioners (attendance every other year); Yes; Yes, should be mandatory for all commissioners; Yes; Yes, these trainings should be mandatory for all new commissioners; Absolutely; Yes; Yes; Yes;